I am Lan and this writing is about my best friend, Mai. We go to the same school and we've been together for three years. Mai is very pretty. She has short black hair and big brown eyes. She is clever and hardworking but she is also funny. She makes jokes and we all laugh. She loves reading and writing short poems. I like being with her. We often do our homework together and she helps me a lot. I also like her because she knows a lot about astronomy and we can chat about it for hours. At the moment we are making a Space minibook. We're doing a lot of researching on the Internet. This Saturday we are going to the National Museum to take some photos for the project. Then we're watching a new film on the Disney channel together. It's going to be fun.

Viet Nam’s New Year is celebrated according to the Lunar calendar. It is officially known as Tet. It begins at the end of January or early February. The exact date changes from year to year. Vietnamese people usually make preparations for the holiday several weeks beforehand. They tidy their houses and cook special food. On the New Year’s Eve, people sit up to midnight to see the New Year in, then they put on new clothes and give one another the greeting of the season. Tet lasts ten days. The first three days are the most important. Vietnamese people believe that how people act during those days will have influence the whole year. As a result, they make every effort to avoid arguments and smile as much as possible.

Question 26. When does Tet begin?
